

On motion of Mr. Risteau, (seconded by two other members that voted in the majority,) the house reconsidered their vote upon the order submitted by him on yesterday, requiring the treasurer to report the amount of money expended annually for the purposes of education within the last ten years, &c.;

Mr. Risteau then moved that said order be rejected;
Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Ridgely presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Anne Arundel county, praying the passage of a law to divide Anne Arundel and Baltimore counties and to make a new county, to be called Howard county;

Which was read and referred to the committee already appointed on that subject.

Mr. Brengle presented a petition of Mary Carlin, widow of William Carlin, a soldier of the revolution, praying to be placed on the pension roll;

Which was read and referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

Mr. Kershner presented a petition of the Vestries of the German Reform Congregations of Hagerstown and its vicinity, praying an act may pass appointing persons to convey certain property therein mentioned;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Kershner, Swingley and Mann.

Mr. McLean obtained leave to bring in a bill for the opening and extension of Camden street, in the city of Baltimore;

Ordered, That Messrs. McLean, Richardson, and Ely report the same.

Mr. McLean obtained leave to bring in a bill supplementary to an act entitled, an act for the widening of Orange Alley, in the city of Baltimore;

Ordered, Messrs. McLean, Richardson and Worthington report the same.

On motion of Mr. McLean,

Leave was granted to the committee on crimes and punishments to bring in a bill to be entitled, a supplement to an act entitled, an act concerning crimes and punishments, passed at December session 1835.

On motion of Mr. Primrose,

Ordered, That the committee on grievances and courts of justice be requested to inquire into the expediency of abolishing imprisonment for debt in this state, after a given period in all cases where fraud is not clearly made manifest, and report by bill or otherwise.